Dear Jared:

The transcripts in this case were prepared several months ago, and we see no reason for any further delay in the resolution of this matter. As such, we oppose any extension to the briefing schedule. Should Defendants receive an extension, however, we would expect that Plaintiffs would be provided with 30 days to respond to Defendants' opening brief.

Best regards,
Nina

Dear Nina:

We've been playing phone tag so I thought this might be easier. As I mentioned in my voicemail we are filing a motion to extend the briefing schedule because we have been unable to get the necessary transcripts. I need to file the motion by tomorrow so I just need to know if you intend to object to it or not. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Jared B. Pearson
